May, 3-5, 2019

All – a physical poem of protest

Company: Mia Habib
Venue: The Downstairs @ La MaMa
Location: New York, NY

Photo by Yaniv Cohen

Part of the La MaMa Moves! Dance Festival

Choreographed by Mia Habib
Norwegian choreographer Mia Habib's ALL - a physical poem of protest investigates the protesting body, the human mass and its force through the meditative action of walking and running in circles. "The score is epic because it is open enough to respond to any occasion and resonate with human struggle, protest and its poetry throughout time." ~Jeremy Wade

Mia Habib is an Oslo-based dancer, performer and choreographer working at the intersection of performance, exhibitions, publications, lectures, teaching, mentoring and curating always guided by a choreographic logic. Her work is described to hold a culture critical perspective on body, identity, society and dance. She engages in labs and research with a variety of specialists including artists, scientists, political activists and others.

Mia Habib
66 E 4th Street, Basement Level
New York, NY, 10003
212-352-3101
http://lamama.org/mia_habib/

Schedule
May 3, 2019: 8:30pm
May 4, 2019: 8:30pm
May 5, 2019: 5:00pm