Be a Part of HERE's Summer Sublet Series: Co-Op

Company: HERE Arts Center
Location: New York, NY

Take your show from page to stage this summer with HERE's help. Our Summer Sublet Series: Co-op is a hybrid performance series that offers bold artists a renowned space and significant support. Your production will run for up to one week, with 2-3 technical rehearsals and 3-10 performances in our 99 seat Mainstage theatre or 71-seat Dorothy B Williams Theatre during the summer months of June, July and August 2019.

If interested in a longer rental, please email us at programming@here.org to discuss.

HERE provides space, equipment, box office services, and technical support. HERE will include the series on our website and in one e-blast to our 19,000 subscribers.

Artists are responsible for production expenses, artist fees, marketing, and any additional staff required for their show.

Tickets are $15. For each performance, the first 20 tickets are a guarantee to HERE, followed by a 50% / 50% split of that evening's box office between HERE and Artist.

Applications are due at noon on Wednesday, April 10, 2019.
