"One of the most exciting, innovative, and delightful dance companies in the entire world." -The New York Times

Experience breathtaking dance and extraordinary music at the Paul Taylor Dance Company's 2023 Lincoln Center Season with Orchestra of St. Luke's under the direction of David LaMarche.

The unparalleled athleticism, artistry, and emotional power of the current generation of Taylor dancers take center stage in nine iconic dances by the legendary Paul Taylor, thrilling world premieres from the brilliant minds of Larry Keigwin and Resident Choreographer Lauren Lovette, Amy Hall Garner's bubbly Somewhere in the Middle, and Ulysses Dove's impactful Vespers. Vanessa Williams returns to narrate Peter and the Wolf, Sergei Prokofiev's delightful symphonic fairy tale, highlighting PTDC's partnership with OSL.

Don't miss out on this extraordinary fusion of virtuosity and humanity at Lincoln Center that only Taylor and OSL can deliver.
