Seeking Male/Female performers for 'live human sculpture court' by Heidi Latsky Dance

Company: Heidi Latsky Dance
Location: New York City, NY

United Nations - Darial Sneed

Take part in ON DISPLAY a 'live human sculpture court' in celebration of two initiatives: October's National Disability Employment Awareness Month and the United Nations' International Day of Persons with Disabilities as part of a worldwide initiative ON DISPLAY GLOBAL.

ON DISPLAY by Heidi Latsky Dance is a deconstructed art exhibit and commentary on the body as a spectacle and society's obsession with body image. It turns a diverse cast into a sculpture court of living statues. This movement installation will involve focus, stillness, and structured improvisation.

We are looking for an all-inclusive cast: All ages (18+), shapes, sizes, races, genders, including those with visible disabilities. No previous formal training in this technique required.

All training will take place in Manhattan. Performances will take place in Bronx/Queens/Manhattan (Must be able to provide your own transportation.)

Performance opportunities: October 12, 2019 Noon (in East Harlem) and December 3 in Bronx, Queens, and Manhattan. October 12th performance will be filmed to be part of a worldwide video-cast at the UN and all ON DISPLAY GLOBAL locations.

Attend a training/rehearsal workshop in Manhattan:

Tues., Oct. 8, 2019: 1:15pm–3:15pm

Tues., Oct. 8, 2019: 3:30pm–5:30pm

Please note that these are community service and social justice performances.

To sign up for a training/rehearsal workshop or for more information, please contact heather@heidilatskydance.org. Please include your name, phone #, and your availability for the training and performance dates above. Returnees are encouraged to attend a workshop as a refresher, however it is not mandatory.
