At the end of November, we have an audition for a site-specific work in spring/summer 2011 and for future projects in season 2011/2012.

We are looking for experienced, professional contemporary dancers, who can combine dance, improvisation and performance skills.

Apprentices should be allowed to do a stage from mid April – July 2011 and should be enrolled for this time in an official educational program.

Creation/performance period will be from mid April – July 2011 for the site-specific work for Oerol and Over 't IJ.

Audition: 27 November 2010

Callback: 28 November 2010

If you are interested in attending the audition, please send your C.V with a portrait and dance photo to info@anoukvandijk.nl (preferably in pdf format and together not exceeding 2 pages) Please state clearly if you audition as a professional dancer or as an apprentice.

Selected applicants will be notified by November 22 as to whether they will be invited to the audition, and will be given the address of venue and time of audition. The audition will take place in Amsterdam

Application deadline: 21 November 2010
