Amanda Selwyn Dance Theatre seeks modern dancers with strong performance and improvisational skills who are also confident speaking to the audience to perform and assist at a SPECIAL EVENT. Dancers will attend one rehearsal and work the event on Saturday, February 26th.

Dancers will perform structured improvisation at the event, serve as dancing waiters, and interact with audience members in various theatrical ways. There will be a $25 stipend for participation in the event and opportunities for discounted tickets. Audition will be held at 83 Leonard Street, 4th Floor (btw Broadway and Church streets) Wednesday, January 26th from 5-6 p.m. To register email amanda@amandaselwyndance.org and put EVENT AUDITION in subject line.

White Night – a Movable Performance Soiree

Guests will steer their way through the 11 spaces at 'Space on White,' creating their own experience for the eyes, ears, palate, and spirit. As party-goers weave from room to room on the three leveled space, they will discover live music, ongoing dance performance previewing Selwyn's developing work Five Minutes, video installation, a silent auction, gambling, a slice of Notes in Motion arts-in-education programs with children dancing and learning, flowing cocktails and hors d'ouerves paired for all of the various spaces, costume exhibits, give-aways, and maybe even a flash mob!
