We are looking to feature 3 dancers in the documentary film-20 Something. The first edition of 20-Something has already been featured at the River Bend Film festival and at The BEATnik Cinema in Atlanta, GA. The film did so well that we are doing a NYC edition focusing on dancers.

20 Something is a social commentary on the youth of today. It will be a series of vignettes in which we follow four 20-year-old dancers who aim for success in NYC. The film's primary goal is to inspire the youth of today to hold onto their dreams and to acknowledge that, through hard work and perseverance, they can manifest their dreams.

We'll follow each person for 2 days and document his or her lives and story. This will include an on-camera interview about your experience/life, footage of you dancing, and footage of you just living your everyday life (walking down the street, stretching, hanging with friends, etc). Ballet, hip-hop, and salsa dancers are welcome to apply as well.

If you feel you would like to be considered in one of these roles, please send a resume, headshots, and a couple paragraphs on why you think your story should be told and seen to lanze.spears@gmail.com

Each Person will be PAID a Flat Fee of $100.00 for their participation in this project.

Shooting Dates will be:

June 6th and 7th
June 13th and 14th
June 20th and 21st
