Are you an amazing dancer?

Can you create an original, popular dance move that everyone will want to do?

Are you working on the next "Stanky Leg" or "Teach Me How to Dougie?"

Have you overcome big challenges to become a dancer?

We are creating a documentary and are seeking dancers to participate. If you're a dancer with an interesting story, if you've had to overcome obstacles in your life in order to dance, AND if you have a new dance move you'd like to show the world, we want to hear from you!

You must be over 18 years old and live in New York City. For those selected, a small stipend will be paid. If you are interested please send your full name, phone number, a brief description of your story, the name of your dance move, and a recent photo to:
