"LEVYdance captures that exhilarating feeling that anything could happen with ROMP...audience members were reluctant to leave, lingering at the tables and chatting with perfect strangers, as if it were difficult to leave such a good time behind." - Mary Ellen Hunt, SF Chronicle

After a completely sold-out home season and being named one of the "Top 10 Dance Moments of 2011" by The San Francisco Chronicle, LEVYdance brings ROMP to the east coast! ROMP is an immersive experience where audience and performers inhabit the stage together, raising the stakes for live performance and creating a welcoming environment that is charged with possibility. Artistic Director Benjamin Levy creates a new relationship between the audience and performer that heightens and activates the role of the viewer.
