

Tuesday, July 17, 2012

Internship in Exchange for Free Dance Classes!

Leslie Guyton info@movementworkshopgroup.org

► Share | Print | Download

Movement Workshop Group, a multi-disciplinary dance theatre company based out of Brooklyn, is looking for an enthusiastic, dedicated, and passionate intern to join us for our fall semester. Intern will receive 15 hours of classes/week in exchange for 15 hours/ week of work.

Intern duties will include:

Working alongside Artistic Director Leslie Guyton, as well as Movement Workshop Group company members. Our intern will be exposed to a broad range of company-related tasks such as touring, grants, residencies, finances, marketing and press, and education.

Qualifications:

We are looking for someone who is self-motivated, good with time management, and flexible. Having a laptop of your own is required. No stipend, but our intern has access to our fall collective classes offered Monday-Friday 9am-12pm.

These classes include daily Graham technique as well as ballet, hip hop, salsa, contemporary, and music video, each offered once a week.

Work hours 1pm-6pm Tuesday, Thursday, Friday

Leslie Guyton info@movementworkshopgroup.org

< back

previous listing • next listing