Dance Times Square is looking for a bright young student or person who would like to be our marketing/social media intern. You will be working under the direction of the Communications Coordinator and the owner of the studio, Melanie LaPatin. Melanie and her partner Tony Meredith, are ballroom champions and choreographers for movies, Broadway and the hit show So You Think You Can Dance? Required Skills: Facebook, Twitter, Website, and social skills to talk to high end clients and business partners. We need someone who is proactive and able to take direction well. Job is unpaid but the experience is wonderful and you will get a lot of exposure to the business aspects of running a dance studio!
