Seeking a Choreographer for a new theater production in Manhattan: an "operatic musical" about the Boston Tea Party. Looking for a movement style that incorporates emotionally demonstrative movement with the grace and fluidity of ballet, and with the gestural expression of (for instance) Indian Classical dance. Fluid dignity and poise are crucial. Must be able to choreograph fight scenes and beautiful, thrilling violent action--in somehow a Romantic way, rather than an edgy or harsh way. Must be a good communicator and good with people--cast will be singers with some movement/dance background but not dancers by primary specialty. Please share online video samples of choreography and give a brief introductory summary of your background. In-person meetings will be arranged as a follow-up.
