Auditions for the Ya'el Tap Dance Company
 Sunday, February 24th
 12:00PM - 3:00PM
 Pearl Studios, studio G
 500 8th Avenue (between W35th and W36th)

Ya'el Tap is a tap dance company featuring works inspired by Hebrew music, Israeli movement, and Jewish themes. In addition, Ya'el Tap includes meaningful non-religious pieces that expand the boundaries of our repertoire. We are currently looking for new tap dancers (all ethnic backgrounds, races, and religions are encouraged to audition) to join our company for the upcoming season.

At this time, rehearsals are unpaid, however, there will be compensation for various performances. In addition, the company receives a free master class from a different master teacher once a month. While we have a few showcases coming up this season, our main performance that we will be working on is Monday, July 29th, at 8:00PM (tech rehearsal will be that afternoon). This will be an evening of dance with Ya'el Tap at the Wild Project in the east village.

Rehearsals are held every Thursday evening from 7PM - 9PM in Manhattan. You can check out our website at www.julie-rubin.com.

Please email a picture (does not have to be professional headshot) and resume to Julie Rubin at yaeltapdancecompany@gmail.com.
