

Thursday, February 28, 2013

Male Dancer/Actor for Narrative Movement Film

Email: gabrielle_lansner_company@yahoo.com

► Share | Print | Download

Audition: Short Narrative Movement Film, directed by Gabrielle Lansner

Invited Audition Week of March 4th

Casting Male Actor/Dancer for Narrative Movement Film

Gabrielle lansner & company, a critically acclaimed dance/theater/film company is casting for one male Performer with acting, dancing and/or movement training for a new film project based on THE BIRCH GROVE, a short novella by Jaroslaw Iwaszkiewicz, an preminent Polish writer.

This will be a collaborative development process to create the work and movement. Strong modern dance/movement technique, ability to improvise and collaborate and a background in theater and the Viewpoints helpful.

Emotionally expressive performers.

Boleslaw: Tall, Eastern-European look, early - mid 30's: rugged, brooding, introverted, sitting in grief.

Paid Rehearsals & Shoot:

Rehearsals: Mid March – April 26

Tues & Friday: 12 – 3pm

Thursday: 1 – 4pm

Additional Rehearsal period in Mid-May

May 13 – 31st

Monday – Thursday 1- 4pm

Filming TBA in summer

Please email your resume and we will contact you about the audition if we are interested in meeting you.

www.gabriellelansner.com

gabrielle_lansner_company@yahoo.com

THE BIRCH GROVE is the story of two brothers who reunite after not seeing each other for many years. The younger brother, Stas, comes to visit his brother after spending time in a sanatorium in Switzerland. He has come home to die. His older brother is a forester who is recently widowed and consumed by work. As the story unfolds we witness the connection that both brother's have to love and death and how they are transformed by their last meeting.

Email: gabrielle_lansner_company@yahoo.com

< back

previous listing • next listing