CALLING ALL CHOREOGRAPHERS! Apply to present your work at the Boston Contemporary Dance Festival. The Call for Choreography is open through April 29, 2013.

The Boston Contemporary Dance Festival brings together an array of contemporary dance choreographers from around the US. Join us this August to present your work in front of over 2000+ audience members!

Both independent choreographers and dance companies are encouraged to apply. Companies of all ages and backgrounds, with diverse strengths, including hip-hop, ballet, modern, jazz and global styles are welcome to apply.

Benefits from participating in the Boston Contemporary Dance Festival include:

Exposure for your work to a broad audience (2000+). Build marketing for your work through access to dance critics and the media in the national dance community.

The opportunity to document your work with professional videographers and photographers.

The opportunity to network with other artists and build contacts with companies from around the United States.

The performances will take place on Saturday, August 17th, 2pm & 7:30pm, location TBD.

Selected companies will be chosen to perform in either one or both shows. All applications should be submitted by Monday, April 30; there is a $30 registration fee for each submission.

Please either apply online at the link below or download the application and mail it to:

Urbanity Dance
280 Shawmut Ave, #1
Boston, MA 02118
with a check for $30 made payable to Urbanity Dance Inc.
