Humanistics Dance Company - a new contemporary dance company based in New York City- is looking for classically trained, modern dance artists. Theatre experience is a plus. Dancers must be available for evening and possible, occasional weekend rehearsals. Some pay. Interested artists, please send a resume, bio and reel or link to dance clips to kim.a.prosa@gmail.com.

About Humanistics Dance Company:

Founded with the belief that the performing arts can and should play an important role in creating more connected, humanized societies by encouraging communication, understanding and personal development to bridge cultural and socio-economic gaps; Humanistics Dance Company utilizes the universal language of dance to connect and engage audiences through performance.
