Community Dance Project NYC (CDPNYC) is looking for one female and one male dancer for the 2013-2014 Performance Season.

Dancers should have a strong background in contemporary jazz dance with an interest in acting/storytelling through movement. Dancers should be available for rehearsals on Sunday evenings (5-8pm) and to attend class on Tuesday or Thursdays nights from 830-10pm (only one night required).

To see a sample of our movement, please view video from our artistic director's open class: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HE_SoOxzK50

There will be a small stipend for select performances, most performances are unpaid.

Please email a resume, headshot, and video (if available) to Communitydanceprojectnyc@gmail.com to request an audition date & time. Auditions will be held in-class.
