Matthew Westerby Company is seeking an apprentice dancer to work with the company in rehearsal this fall. This position would suit a recent college graduate or a currently enrolled student.

The company apprentice would work with the company during the creative process of making a new work this fall beginning early September, with two rehearsals per week. The apprentice would also work with assigned roles within the existing repertory. Unfortunately this position is unpaid.

You must email in advance for an audition spot. Please send a resume and headshot.
