CircuitDebris is looking for male dancers with strong physicality and expressive personality. Actors with movement ability are encouraged to apply.

We are casting for a performance at Dixon place on Oct. 23rd as well as continued participation in the creation period for summer/fall 2013. CircuitDebris is participating in LCA's Women in Dance Project from August-December 2013. This project will culminate with a performance at Alvin Ailey City Center Theater in December. Throughout the Women Dance Project the company will have the opportunity to work with and get guidance from artists such as Desmond Richardson, Sidra Bell, Debbie Allen and others.

We are holding an open rehearsal on August 10, 2013 from 3-6pm at the DANY Studios located at 305 W. 38th St.
