CPR Presents: Spring Movement 2014

The application for Spring Movement is open through March 3! Apply yourself and encourage colleagues to apply as well!

After three successful nights of performances hosted in November 2013, CPR Presents is returning with its bi-annual presentation series of emerging and mid-career experimental dance artists. CPR Presents: Spring Movement will showcase work up to twelve choreographers over the course of three evenings from April 10-12, 2014.

CPR invites applications from artists working within the various aspects of dance and performance as well as pieces that incorporate technological and visual art elements. Please keep in mind, CPR has a general repertory plot with very basic track lighting, projection capabilities and a full sound system. No additional equipment can be provided. Pieces proposed for presentation should be no more than 20 minutes in length, including any setup or breakdown. CPR loves to host artist from outside of New York, but cannot pay for any travel costs or help with accommodations in NYC.

If you would like to be a part of Spring Movement in 2014 please submit an application form, including a short biography, a description of the proposed work and a video work sample (Please read the application guidelines before you submit your materials).

DEADLINE: All applications must be received via email by Monday, March 3rd by 6pm.

For more information or to request an application form, please email us at applications@cprnyc.org.

We are looking forward to seeing your application!
