I am looking for female dancers to model dance and yoga clothing for a test shoot. I am doing this test in attempt to win a client that sells this type of clothing.

Photos in the form of digital files will be provided. There will be no monetary compensation for this one but it could lead to paid sessions if we win the client based on the photos we take. Plus, if the client choses to use our photos for their website some compensation will be in order.

The ideal person would be someone who has both dance and yoga experience but it is not necessary.

Please send (email) a headshot and a full body shot if you have one. Performance photos would be okay. As of right now I am planning a shoot for Saturday March 15th at a studio on 27th street in Manhattan.
