I am gathering dancers and musicians on behalf of Belgian choreographer Stephan Goldrajch. He will be in residence at The Invisible Dog this April 5 - 19.

The work is set around encounters and interactions. Eight dancers will help carry a 'Goliath' through the streets of Brooklyn in a costumed and masked performance on April 19. Musicians who specialize in violin, trumpet, voice, or other instruments that can travel easily are encouraged to apply. Rehearsals would be minimal and consist mostly of discussion for an improvised, hour-long performance. Dancers and musicians must be comfortable in improvisation and should email interest and resumes to studio@chezbushwick.net.

Unpaid.
