WHITE WAVE is seeking Interns and Volunteers to assist with our BAM Season.

WHITE WAVE is looking for people who, first and foremost, are interested in the dance community of New York City. A courteous demeanor is crucial, since they will need to work well with staff, artists, and the general public. Proficiency in Microsoft Office and being web-savvy are pluses.

Organization's Mission, a brief History:

WHITE WAVE is a non-profit arts organization established in 1988. Our mission is to be a potent stimulus for change and expansion of the dance/arts world through the creation of new dance works, production of dance concerts, and education and outreach through dance classes. WHITE WAVE accomplishes its mission by providing opportunities for dancers and choreographers to create, rehearse, perform their art and network with each other, and by engaging the local dance community in an ongoing arts dialogue, carrying dance and art forward through sharing and collaboration.

Activities

Interns and Volunteers will assist with various tasks, including PR & Marketing, social media, administrative assistance, etc., working with staff towards the successful production of our 2014 BAM Season. WHITE WAVE Young Soon Kim Dance Company's BAM performances are scheduled for June 18-22, 2014.

Volunteering for WHITE WAVE is a great opportunity to experience working at a vibrant NY dance company in the non-profit sector. During this BAM Season, it is also a unique chance to see behind-the-scenes of a BAM Production.

WHITE WAVE is located only one stop away from downtown Manhattan on the F train, in the vibrant art scene of DUMBO Brooklyn.

Short-term internships are unpaid but can be used for academic credit. A long term internship will be paid around $8/hour. Interns should expect to work 10-20 hours per week; the scheduling is flexible from M-F, 10am-6pm. Volunteers can also choose their work hours from within our office hours.

Please send a cover letter explaining your interest to Young Soon Kim, Artistic Director at email: whitewavevolunteers@gmail.com or call us at 718-855-8822.
