*2 weeks in Jacmel and Port-au-Prince, Haiti.
Applications due 4 April 2014.*

NEW WAVES! 2014 - AYITI gathers dance artists and scholars from all around the world in Haiti. This joint program and collaboration was created to invoke the Institute's commitment to movement, dance and performance throughout the Caribbean. From 17 to 31 July 2014, 50 participants will engage intensive classes and workshops, build community, and experience the unique cultural landscape of Haiti. Courses and workshops will be held in Jacmel and Port-au-Prince.

In addition to Jeanguy Saintus, Haitian contemporary dance artist, the internationally renowned faculty and guests will include Makeda Thomas (Trinidad & Tobago/Contemporary Dance), Christopher Walker (Jamaica/Caribbean Dance), Catherine Denecy (Guadeloupe/Performance), Dieufel Lamisere (Haiti/Folkloric Dance), Marvin George (Trinidad & Tobago/JOUVAY AYITI), and Dyane Harvey-Salaam (USA/Repertory). Claire Tancons (Guadeloupe/Performance Theory) is the 2014 Scholar-in-Residence.

Special Guests include Lowell Fiet, (Puerto Rico/Mas Workshop), New Orleans dance artist, Michelle Gibson, and Artists-in-Residence, Adeola Dewis and Michelle Murray.

New Waves! 2014 - AYITI will be accommodated at the Hotel Oloffson, offering participants secure living steeped in rich history in central Port-au-Prince. In Jacmel, the artistic capital of Haiti, and from the historical Hotel Florita, Scholar-in-Residence Claire Tancons will lead the Roundtable Series with esteemed Haitian guest artists. Affiliate events include the three-day Kanaval des Fleurs (Carnival of Flowers) in Port-au-Prince.
