Seeking Emerging Dance Companies:

The Fourth Annual Brooklyn Dance Festival is seeking emerging dance companies and offering performance opportunities in a state of the art theater.

Emerging Dance Companies have less than 3 years of an active performance schedule as a company. Selected companies may not have any performances 4 weeks before or after being presented at the Brooklyn Dance Festival.

We are looking for 3-5 minute pieces with 4 or more dancers. There is a $25.00 non-refundable submission fee. If accepted, there will be an additional $25.00 performance fee. Performers must be available for both performances and tech rehearsal which will be posted soon.
