NYC Dance Week is a project of Tendu Inc, a 501c(3) organization. The event engages the community and families to experience dance, encouraging them to live active, healthy lifestyles. The organization moves beyond traditional dance forms to teach participants how all dance genres benefit mind, body and spirit.
 Visit www.nycdanceweek.org for details on how to participate—engage new audiences, sponsor, advertise, & volunteer.

NYC Dance Week is currently seeking a Studio Outreach Ambassador who will be responsible for providing aid in expanding studio participation and nurturing our relationship with the participating studios during the festival. Start date is ASAP depending on the task.

Below are the tasks:

- Find new participating studios and contact them to participate (need two volunteers).
- Drop in during the festival to make sure things are running smoothly, greet students, take photos/videos to share on social media, and give away prizes.
- Interact with students taking free classes, get feedback and ask to post on social media.
