i KADA Contemporary Dance Company is holding "KoDaFe in NYC" on May 27th at Ailey Citigroup Theater!!

We are accepting applications for choreographers and dance companies for the international festival. i KADA is presenting our annual festival called "KoDaFe in NYC" which stands for Korean Dance Festival. This international festival is presenting artists, choreographers and dancers from all over the world, uniting them in a unique cultural exchange. All shows and festivals have a specific theme attached to the works. This is where the cultural exchange between artists, choreographers, and dancers are united.

This year i KADA is presenting the Third annual KoDaFe in NYC and the theme of this year's festival is "Finding your origin".

We are different because we are born into different cultures, with different backgrounds. The world is a very diverse with many different races. We would like to create dance works of extraordinary artistry that deliver positive messages and life-enriching experiences for all.

-All styles of dance will be considered in the festival. (The length of work: 7-10min)

-No application fee but there is a $50 non-refundable fee for the acceptance.

-APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 25th, 2015

-Submit the resume of the choreographer or dance company with a video link of the proposed work to ikadadance@gmail.com
