Not sure how best to prepare?
I have answers and will teach you.

Delivering a memorable performance during an audition - or even just in class - can be the key to being cast and/or called in for future projects.

"...[Ariane] also dives deeply into the audition process to help students recognize their strengths and weaknesses; both emotionally and physically. Perhaps more importantly, she spends quality time with her studentsa?? giving them valuable feedback and helping them with their specific dance questions and concerns." - Gerri Houlihan (Dean, American Dance Festival / Professor, Florida State University)
