Eunoia Dance Ex (E.D.E.) is holding an open workshop/performance for emerging dance artists in New York City. The workshop will take place on Saturday March 28th from 10am to 4pm at La Luz (135 Thames St, Brooklyn, NY). The workshop is donation based (suggested donation $10-$20).

TRIPD is an improvised score for dance, flute, piano, and electronics. The workshop will include a full warm up, an in-depth exploration of TRIPD's unique movement vocabulary, an overview of the structure of TRIPD, and some repertory. There will be an informal performance at the end of the workshop. Dancers are encouraged to invite audience members.

E.D.E. is committed to forging connections within the dance community. This performance model offers young dancers performance opportunities at minimal cost, and low-commitment, while affording us the opportunity to engage in a meaningful exchange within the dance community. E.D.E. also believes that fostering collaboration is not only vital to our growth as a company and also to young dancers embarking on their professional journey.
