Laurie M. Taylor/Soul Movement Dance is need of 2 assistants starting this Wed, June 24, 2015

Dance Production Assistant: Looking for a go-getter with great energy and can think independently. This person is a dancer or has some dance and/or performance experience of anykind. Duties include assisting me in rehearsal this week, starting Wed, assisting with costume preparation, and assisting the company this weekend with an upcoming performance. This is a short-term opportunity, offering a small stipend for the week. Potential to evolve into something more long-term to support Laurie M. Taylor/Soul Movement with touring responsibilities and preparation, studio and choreographic processes, and general assistance to the Artistic Director.

Marketing Intern/Associate: Seeking an organized, trustworthy person to manage SOULMOVEMENT merchandise sales this weekend, manage social media, and interface with potential clients and curators at upcoming performances. You will be responsible for promoting the company and handing out company materials to interested audience members and presenters. I will familiarize you with our company mission and core values, so you feel confident in speaking about the "brand" of Laurie M. Taylor/Soul Movement. Short-term, paid opportunity, starting this Wed. Potential for long-term opportunity with the company.
