Nicole Malogodi

Deadline to Apply: Extended! Friday, June 26th

The Creators Collective is looking for choreographers interested in collaborating with filmmakers. The collaborative process will be quick and can occur in one of many ways – dance inspired by a film, film inspired by dance, a new work created together, or separate works simply layered over the other.

These works will be presented at an event at the end of July that will layer dance, film and visual art. We will present a series of these pop-up collaborations between dance and film while visual artists will simultaneously create live illustrations inspired by these collaborations.

This event is part of a longer series of events involving quick collaborations between artists working in different disciplines and performed at an event in Brooklyn. Click HERE to learn more about a similar project we've produced. If you have any questions, please send us an email.

TO APPLY: Send an email to Gina at gina@thecreatorscollective.org with your full name, 2-3 work samples and a website (if you have one).
