ABOUT NBDC & KINETICA:

The Nadine Bommer Dance Company is the U.S. based company of Israeli choreographer Nadine Bommer. Bommer also founded the Nadine Animato Dance Company of Tel Aviv, Israel. In 2003, Bommer opened the Nadine Academy of Dance in Rishon Lezion, Israel. In 2015, Bommer established the New York City ensemble, allowing her to expand her company while returning to the city of her birth. Both companies perform locally and abroad.

Inspired by the sea and kinetic energy, Kinetica is based on the sensation of movement through space, which leads to a floating, liquid, and endlessly malleable quality. Kinetica technique provides an infinite and fascinatingly individual movement language. 15 Israeli dance schools, among them the Kibbutzim College of Education Dance Theatre, have adopted this method.
