Cora School for Dance in Red Hook, Brooklyn is accepting applications for experienced Hip Hop teachers for beginner (ages 5-8), intermediate (ages 9-12), and advanced (ages 13+) students.

The Cora School for Dance strives to be an exceptional dance school that feels like a second home. Students receive strong technical instruction while expanding their creativity and sense of community through dance and related art. Cora focuses on creating opportunities for people to interact, learn, and grow through dance while addressing the impediments that limit access to arts for all. The Cora School is a pay-what-you-can facility, meaning we turn no one away based on ability to pay and offer sliding scale classes for everyone. For more information about Cora, check out our website at coradance.org.

Looking for:

- Experience teaching children's Hip Hop ages 5+
- Availability Wednesday evenings
- Training in multiple styles of dance (modern/contemporary technique a plus)
- Availability to commit to the Spring term (January - June)

Please send a one paragraph letter of intent along with a resume (include teaching experience and education) to Kelsey Kramer at kkramer@coradance.org.

Starting pay is $35-$40/hour, depending on experience.

Applications due by January 1st, 2016. For more info call 718-858-2520.
