

Monday, December 14, 2015

IABD 1st Annual Ballet Auditions For Women Of Color

Company: International Association of Blacks In Dance
Location: Washington, DC
Compensation: Varies

► Share | Print | Download

The International Association of Blacks In Dance presents its 1st Annual Ballet Audition for women of color, Sunday, January 24, 2016, 3pm at Cleo Parker Dance Studios in Denver, CO. Dancers will have the opportunity to audition for contracts with one of approximately 15 premiere ballet dance companies from across the country. Professional development, summer workshops and training positions will also be available.

Participating companies include Colorado Ballet, Dance Theatre Of Harlem, Joffrey Ballet and Pacific Northwest Ballet School.

Interested applicants must meet the below requirements:

- Must be 15 years of age or older
- En Pointe
- Full-body Dance Photograph
- Résumé and Headshot
- $35.00 Audition Fee

This is one in a series of dance auditions IABD is hosting as part of 'Black Dance Rising', its 28th annual international dance conference and festival. For more information, including a complete list of participating companies, visit www.iabdassociation.org/conference-auditions.

International Association of Blacks In Dance
P.O. Box 1544
Washington, DC, 20013
(202) 345-6887
www.iabdassociation.org

For more information:
Denise Saunders Thompson
info@iabdassociation.org

< back

previous listing • next listing