More About SHE:

In honor of both Women's History Month (March) and Sexual Assault Awareness Month (April) I am creating a multi-media production that addresses violence against women and girls in America, on our planet. In our nation 1 out of 4 women or girls are survivors of some form of sexual violence. Across the globe it is 1 out of 3, or over 1 billion women and girls. The work will feature non-dancer women who are survivors of sexual violence, who have volunteered to participate as a means of their own healing journey, and for the audience.
