Movies By Movers and The International Screendance Festival at the American Dance Festival have merged! Movies By Movers is now called, ADF's Movies By Movers and will hold screenings in Durham, NC at the American Dance Festival July 6th-9th, 2016 and in Boone, NC on the campus of Appalachian State University September 8th-10th, 2016.

ADF's International Screendance Festival, founded in 1997, and Movies by Movers, founded in 2010, have screened over 500 films combined. In 2016, the two festivals will launch ADF's 21st year of celebrating screen dance.

ADF's Movies By Movers seeks short works for the screen for its 2016 season! Works by student, emerging and established artists are accepted in the genres of filmmaking, including experimental and digital technologies, documentary, choreography for the camera, animation and narrative. Submissions open January 8th and will remain open until April 18th.

For full information and to submit your work, go to www.adfmoviesbymovers.org and go to the submissions tab. You may also visit www.americandancefestival.org and go to the Projects tab.
