Hello,

StylePointe is inviting all NYC based Emerging and Established Fashion Designers to submit their application to participate in "StylePointe 2019" on September 12 during fall NYFW, at Dixon Place Theater, 161A Chrystie Street, NY 10002.

StylePointe tells the story behind the fashion designer's collection, through dance.

We ask for fashion designers, with complete existing collections, to submit work samples. Four to Eight designer collections will be chosen. These designer apparels will then be introduced to established dance choreographers from various styles; who will create different dance vignettes to showcase the fashion collections portraying the story/inspiration behind the collections.

This is a unique collaboration opportunity.

Here is the link to the application page: <http://stylepointe.net/application/>

Although many of your questions may be answered in the FAQ page: <http://stylepointe.net/faq/>, however, I will be happy to answer any question you may have, please feel free to contact me at stylepointenyc@gmail.com. And please spread the word.

Looking forward to connect.

Thank you.
