Newly formed dance company Grain and Salt seeks collaborative dancers for a new work. Dancers should be highly skilled in modern/contemporary and partner work as well as experience with other performative arts.

We are looking for mature dancers who are interested in being a part of the process and heavily involved in the creative research.

Excerpt of the work will be shown on April 17th, with potential performance opportunities to come. Rehearsal schedule will be decided based upon dancers schedules. No rehearsal pay, small performance stipend.

To be considered please email grainandsalt@gmail.com with resume, headshot and video by February 22nd. Audition will be held Sunday, February 28th, selects artists will be contacted with specific time and location.
