Share your work at one of our upcoming events!

THE CREATORS COLLECTIVE is seeking dancers and choreographers to present their work at our spring and summer events, as well as those interested in collaborating with artists of other disciplines. This is an ongoing call for artists, but apply as soon as possible for the opportunity to share your work at one of our next few events.

You can learn more about our programming on our website. Here are a couple of our upcoming events, with some more yet to be announced:

Ready Freddy's?!

A monthly series featuring live music, dance, and video with opportunity for collaboration, improvisation, and presentation of each artists' own work. Take place the 4th Thursday of each month.

Spring Party!

Our annual fundraiser showcasing work by artists we've presented before as well as artists we're excited to welcome to THE CREATORS COLLECTIVE community. This event will be a marathon of performances on Saturday, April 2nd

Some of the yet to be announced events that we are also seeking artists for will include dance immersed in projections and visual art, and short dance works that will pop-up in the middle of an audience.

To apply, please fill out this short form to provide us with contact and marketing info and links to work samples.
