

Tuesday, March 8, 2016

Dancers Wanted for Japanese Folktale Presentation.

Company: Dance Project SEQUENCE, Inc.

Location: Woodside, NY

Compensation: Contact us

► Share | Print | Download

Keichiro Hoashi

AUDITION

Dancers for Momo-Taro or Spirit of Peach, A Japanese Folktale Project

Dance Project SEQUENCE, Inc., a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, produces a work based on Japanese folktale to entertain Japanese descend children, their families and general public. We conduct auditions to professionals and emerging performing artists to perform in our production. We especially encourage Asian performers to apply, but not limited to.

Hip-Hop, Street Jazz and Jazz Dancers: Tuesday, March 29th, from 6:00 PM

Ballet and Modern Dancers: Thursday, March 31st, from 7:30 PM

Performance Date: Sunday, June 12th, 2016 at the Riverside Church Theater, in New York.

We seek:

1) Ballet Choreographer.

2) Ensemble Members: Dancers in all genre.

Performers that can perform the leading roles and supporting roles.

We especially need ballet and hip-hop male dancers.

Audition Venue: The Champions Studios,
257 W. 39th St., between 7th & 8th Ave. 14th floor, New York, NY 10018

Send us your resume, photo, and video link if you have any to: artscure@gmail.com

We will contact you for availability to audition.

(Image and video is from our performance last year, Urashima-Taro, A Fisherman's Tale.)

Dance Project SEQUENCE, Inc.
70-06 Woodside Ave. #2C
Woodside, NY, 11377
347-792-5659
www.dpsny.org

For more information:
Eri Misaki
artscure@gmail.com
347-792-5659

< back

previous listing • next listing