Third Rail Projects is gathering submissions from experienced and seasoned male performers for Then She Fell and The Grand Paradise in 2016. Performers need to have general evening availability for performances and afternoon availability for rehearsals.

We are seeking performers with: a strong contemporary dance background and at least three years of professional performance experience; excellent partnering skills; comfort and experience moving in a site-specific context-- for example, on architecture (furniture, walls, tables, staircases); the ability to move athletically in aggressive, heightened choreography as well as an ability to execute simple, uninflected pedestrian actions; experience with dynamic partnering; a willingness and comfort using voice and speech; and the ability to embody a character and interact personally and in close proximity to audience members.

Please send your resume (can also be in bio format), headshot and a photo that best represents you as an artist to casting@thirdrailprojects.com. We also recommend including links to online videos of your work.

We will select and contact the first round of candidates for an audition with Third Rail Projects' artistic directors on Thursday, June 2, from 10am-1pm. A callback will take place on Wednesday, June 8, from 10am-1pm.
