HOTR is a 501(c)(3) organization that brings the joy of dance and creative movement to homeless and at-risk children all over the New York City area. We are currently seeking volunteers to help us with a brand new project:

House of the Roses Dance Company Summer Season
4 weeks: July 25 - August 15
Mondays at 4:30 - 5:30 P.M.
Jersey City - Exchange Place (5 minutes from downtown NYC)

We are seeking a volunteer teaching artist to assist our Lead Teacher with a 4-week dance education curriculum for young children ages 6-12. Although a dance background is a plus, no experience is necessary - just a love for dance and helping others! Our season will conclude with a community Block Party featuring performances by our young dancers. Please e-mail us for more information or to apply today!
