Madeline Hollander (b.1986, Los Angeles) is a New York based choreographer who works primarily with performance and video. Her work explores the formation of new body languages generated by the evolution of interface design, ergonomics, and mediated daily rituals. Hollander graduated from Barnard College, Columbia University in 2008 with a B.A. in Anthropology and a concentration in visual arts. Hollander has exhibited works at SIGNAL Gallery, NY; Movement Research at the Judson Memorial Church, NY; Untitled Art Fair, FL; Luxembourg & Dayan Gallery, NY; the Sculpture Center, NY; Jack Hanley Gallery, NY; Tina Kim Gallery, NY; The Kitchen, NY; Torrance Shipman Gallery, NY; & Human Resources, LA. Hollander has danced professionally with Los Angeles Ballet, CA & Angel Corella Ballet, Madrid, Spain and has been an artist in residence at Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture; Choreographic Coding Labs, UCLA; & Fountainhead Studios, Miami, FL. She is currently a recipient of the 2016 Socrates Sculpture Park Emerging Artist Fellowship.
