THE SIMON FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

The Simon Family Scholarship supports the development of pre-professional dancers by subsidizing class and other training opportunities.

We all know how challenging it is for pre-professional dancers to train in New York City. Working to cover living expenses eats up time that we'd rather spend in class. It's a vicious cycle.

This scholarship provides three classes per week for six months at Gibney Dance, a workshop or intensive of their choice with Alexandra Beller, Kate Weare, or Springboard X, and career mentorship.

If you're interested in dancing more and working less, please take a look on our site to find all the details, and to see if you're eligible to apply. Applications close July 5.
