Third Rail Projects is looking for male performers for their immersive work Then She Fell, currently running in Brooklyn. It is important for performers to be available to perform evening performances Tues-Sun with a 6:30pm call time and have flexible availability for the fall and winter. Rehearsals would be scheduled in mid-October-mid November and take place between 1-6pm during the day.

We are seeking performers with: a strong contemporary dance background and at least three years of professional performance experience; excellent partnering skills; comfort and experience moving in a site-specific context, for example on architecture (furniture, walls, tables, staircases); the ability to move athletically in aggressive, heightened choreography as well as an ability to execute simple, uninflected pedestrian actions; experience with dynamic partnering; a willingness and comfort using voice and speech; and the ability to embody a character and interact personally and in close proximity to audience members.

Please send your resume (can also be in bio format,) recent headshot, and a photo that best represents you as an artist to julia@thirdrailprojects.com by Sunday October 9. We will also accept links to online videos of your work. Please include any blocks of time that you would be unavailable between November 2016 and April 2017. We will select and invite the first round of candidates for an audition with Third Rail Projects' Artistic Directors on Wednesday October 12 10am-1pm, with a callback on Friday October 14 10am-1pm. Please note: If you are applying you must be available for both dates.
