Time Lapse Dance (TLD), a 501(c)3 non-profit dance company, was founded by dancer-choreographer Jody Sperling in 2000. The company presents visually-alluring kinetic theater that fuses dance, music, lighting and costume design. Following Sperling's trailblazing journey to the Arctic in 2014, as the first-ever choreographer-in-residence aboard a US Coast Guard ice-breaker, the company's focus is producing programs that merge choreography and climate science. See <http://timelapsedance.com/> for more info about the company.
