Who are we?

MICHIYAYA Dance is an all women's contemporary dance theater company based in New York City. Co-founded in fall 2015 by Anya Clarke and Mitsuko Verdery, MICHIYAYA Dance merges the worlds of Clarke and Verdery's background in dance and visual art. Clarke (BFA from Long Island University) uses her experience in choreography, adding visceral and intuitive movement. Verdery (BFA from Carnegie Mellon University) includes her practice in performance and visual art, adding conceptually driven performative work. Together, they produce collaborative and improvisational-based work with their dance artists. MICHIYAYA Dance was recently awarded the 2016 1st place winner for Choreographic Excellence in the 11th Annual International REVERBdance Festival. MICHIYAYA Dance has performed at the Brooklyn Museum, Baruch Performing Arts Center, Dixon Place, CPR-Center for Performance Research, and Infinito Gallery, among others. They have taught master classes/workshops at Earl Mosley's Institute of the Arts Summer Intensive, LEIMAY, and CPR. They are currently creating their next evening length work titled 'Spline' premiering March 2017.
