About the company:

Jennifer Muller/The Works is a dance company based in Manhattan, and has performed in 39 countries on four continents, 30 states, and has self-produced 25 New York City seasons. The Works is celebrating its 41st year of presenting the unique spirit of its performances to world audiences, educating youth and serving the community with vital outreach. Founder and Artistic Director, Jennifer Muller, creates exhilarating dances that are evocative, inspirational, passionate and engaging.

The Works is thrilled to offer its Scholarship Program, a professional development opportunity for aspiring professional dancers. Serving approximately 25 students every year, scholarship students gain hands on experience working with a professional dance company. This program offers students attendance at company classes free-of-charge in the Muller Polarity Technique, taught by company members, alumni, Artistic Council Members and Jennifer Muller. In exchange for technique classes, scholarship students provide administrative support for JMTW, offering participants an invaluable, in-depth experience into the running of an arts organization.

With individualized attention, the program is tailored for each artist and provides a supportive environment in which to learn, explore and grow.

*Classes are held Five days a week Monday-Friday, 12-2pm, but may be subjected to change and students will be notified. Classes take place at The Works' studio in Chelsea and take place approximately 48 weeks out of the year.

For more information, please contact Katy Neely at kneely@jmtw.org or Cynthia Liu at CLiu@jmtw.org.

TO AUDITION:

Please email Katy or Cynthia to schedule an audition appointment. You will take class in Muller Polarity Technique, which will act as your audition.

Please bring your resume and headshot with you; arrive at least 15 minutes early and be prepared to fill out a form, to be provided in the student, which will be attached to your documents.

This audition will also act as a look-see for potential company involvement.

Please email to schedule an appointment NOW!
