Carol Rosegg

Jennifer Muller, Founder and Artistic Director of the international, contemporary dance company, Jennifer Muller/The Works, will be teaching at Peridance from 4-6 pm the week of June 26th-30th. Students who attend 2 days of the program, will be invited to take a subsequent, free class at The Works' studio in which they will be considered for the scholarship/apprentice program. Students who attend 3 days, will be invited to the studio to audition for opportunities to perform repertory in school shows and/or at Hatch, the company's performance series for emerging choreographers.

More info on the Apprentice/Scholarship Program

Serving approximately 25 students every year, scholarship and apprentice students gain hands on experience working with a professional dance company. This program offers students attendance at company classes free-of-charge in the Muller Polarity Technique, taught by company members, alumni, Artistic Council Members and Jennifer Muller. In exchange for technique classes, scholarship students and apprentices provide administrative support for JMTW, offering participants an invaluable, in-depth experience into the running of an arts organization. The program also offers workshops in Muller's Creative Mind Technique and Teacher Training on a rotating basis. Company classes are held 5 days a week Monday-Friday, 11-1pm, at The Works' studio in Chelsea. Classes take place approximately 48 weeks out of the year.
