Applications are now available for the 9th Annual Collaborations in Dance Festival at Triskelion Arts, running from November 2 - 5, 2017.

Triskelion Arts is looking for premiere, movement-based work that features a strong collaboration with other mediums such as film, music, theater, visual arts, etc. All submissions will be considered and will be chosen on the basis of quality of work, nature of the collaboration, and appropriateness for the event. Participants in the festival will be presented on one or more evenings and will be allotted a half-hour technical rehearsal prior to their first performance.

DEADLINE: Friday, June 30, 2017
